The film is produced by Bhatta under their banner named Bhatta. The film was released on 5 September 1998. The movie is a remake of Tamil film Kaaka Muttai (1996). Storyline Sudhir is a con man and a gambler. He is being chased by bank officials, and he is ready to do anything in order to save his 'loved ones'. He moves into a villa owned by Vishnu Bhai (Prateek), who is also the leader of a gang which is committing all kinds of crimes for financial gain. One day, a wealthy banker named Raghu (Shahrukh Khan) comes to Vishnu Bhai's villa to meet with Vishnu Bhai, but Vishnu Bhai denies that Raghu is a guest. Raghu gets mad and attacks the gang, but gets away after a fight. Vishnu Bhai keeps his guest at the villa for several days. The guest becomes very frustrated when he realizes that Vishnu Bhai's gang is out to kill Raghu. He tells Vishnu Bhai to kill Raghu, but Vishnu Bhai refuses. At this point, Sudhir is introduced to Raghu. Raghu is in the same line of business as Vishnu Bhai, but he does not associate with Vishnu Bhai's gang. Raghu and Sudhir pretend to be in love in order to lure Raghu's enemies into attacking him. Raghu's enemies include the bank officials who are after him, and Vishnu Bhai's gang. During the course of the movie, the two of them are pursued by various people including members of the bank officials and Vishnu Bhai's gang. They find themselves in trouble many times, but they escape through trickery.
